

US Army Aviation & Missile Command
Manuel Jones
Director, LTPO Sustainment Logistics Directorate
Integrated Materiel
Management Center
Redstone Arsenal, Alabama

Born in Madison, Alabama, Mr. Jones served in the US Army from July 1969 through June 1971. He served in Vietnam with the 5th battalion, 16th Field Artillery, 4th Infantry Division. After his discharge from the Army, he graduated with a Bachelors of Business Administration with a concentration in Management from the University of Montevallo.

Mr. Jones started his civilian career as a Mail & File Clerk in 1971 at the Safeguard Systems Command. In 1979, he entered the DARCOM Intern Training Program at Red River Army Depot. Upon completion of the formal course work in 1980, he was assigned to the US Army Missile Command where he was employed by the then Missile Logistics Center. He has served in numerous capacities throughout what is now known as the Integrated Materiel Management Center (IMMC).

His civilian career encompasses many logistics job assignments to include General Supply Specialist, Inventory Management Specialist, Supply Systems Analyst, and Logistics Management Specialist. He has held the positions of Reviewer Supervisor, Section Chief, Branch Chief, Division Chief, and is now currently the Director of the Lower Tier Sustainment Logistics Defense Directorate.

Mr. Jones' military awards include the Bronze Star, Army Commendation Medal, Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal, Expert M16. His civilian career service awards include the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service, Superior Civilian Service Award and the Meritorious Civilian Service Award.

Mr. Jones is a member of the Army Acquisition Corps (AAC) and is certified level III in Acquisition Logistics. He is an ordained Deacon at the First Missionary Baptist Church in Decatur, Alabama.